BOY BURGLAR NEAR WESTERLY

Harry Kenyon, 18, Caught in Pawcatuck Store—Held in $500 Bonds Religious Revival-Water Service to Weekapaug by June 15-Band Concert This Evening.

At present there are about ten boys, residents of the twin viliages of Westerly and Pawcatuck, serving time 'n penal institutions who have been sentenced for burgiary or the modified charge of harceny in breaking into stores and steading therefrom. Five of the boys have breen sentenced within a month, but their punishment, does not seem to have any deterrent effect upen others similarly inclined.

Least Standay right the store of Samuel Office of Pawcatuck left Wednesday for seat the boy brugiar in that case has not been delected. Threaday night the prospect street, Pawcatuck, was entered and the boy brugiar in that case has not been delected. Threaday night the prospect street, Pawcatuck, was entered, but the young fellow in that case was trained to the fail in New London and it to specify and the proposed street, and service by the sentence of the store lighting market of Arthur Bubesck in the two treets will depend upon the amount street, and the service was alar and the one concluded that it was a case of burgiary. Constable Kenyon went to the store and saw a young follow tampering with a case harver. The rear door of the store was alar and the control and the service was alar and the control and the follows as arraigned before Indea Breed in the town court of Storington Wednesday morning, changed with burgiary. He pleaded not guilty Proceculing Attorney George R. Mc. Kenna, explained the facts in the case and after a brief hearing probable cause was from the following root of the connection school for boys. Rev. Clayton A. Burdick, paster of Preventuck Seventh-day Baptist church, writes of the local religious conditions as follows: "Westerly has conditions as lottows: westerly his not experienced such a religious awakening as many towns and cities have been having the past winter and spring. No concerted affort of the chusches has been attempted for several years. The Paople's mission has carried on at different times a series of meetings under different envangel. of meetings under different envangelists. The First-day Baptist church held meetings for two weeks this spring under the leadership of Miss Mary A. Moore of Syracuse, N. Y. Newertheless, nearly all the churches have been receiving more members. have been receiving more members than usual. The Methodist Episcopal church probably profited more by the Ashaway revival than any other of the Westerly bodies, for the reason that it draws heavily from the residents of Potter Hill.

Potter Hill.

The Pawestuck church has had no special work except by a visit of Rev. Edwin Shaw of Plainfield, N. J., who gave three helpful and thoughtful sermons. Some of our people attended a number of the Ashaway meetings, where two of our young people signed cards; but in going among the people the pastor found there was quite a number who were anxious and ready to put on Christ by baptism and church membership. The evening before the Sabbath of May 30 twenty-one of these were baptized and at the of these were baptized and at the morning service of that day eighteen were taken into the fellowship of the church, with four others unting by letter. One of the remaining three had to be away, and one is to unite with the Second Westerly church a:

A storekeeper in a place suburban to Westerly placed a claim for collection with a local lawyer Wednesday with the admonition not to press the debtor good turn for the claimant. The store-keeper said: "That fellow unwitingly prevented my store from being robbed. You see, it was like this "This topic of the control of t very hard, as the debtor had done a You see, it was like this. This fellow lived next house to the store and had a very boisterous attack of delirium tremens. Burgiars had bored holes in the back door of the store, had re-moved the big wooden bar, when the fellow who ower me money let out a demonlaced yell that so frightened the burglars that they ran away at top speed, leaving their tools behind them He probably saved me much more than he owes me."

Drink habit is a discouraging habit both to the drinker and to the drinker's family. Drinking men promise themseives and their families they will stop drinking, but always fail to do so, because the craving for drink is stronger than the will-power to resist. If you are discouraged by repeated failures to stop drinking, investigate the Neal Drink Habit Treatment, which is a sure, harmless vegetable remedy that removes the craving and necessity for drink in three days—without the use of hypodermic injections. Being Agrecable.

The true art of being agreeable is to appear well pleased with all the company, and rather to seem well entertained with them than to bring entertainment to them. A man thus disposed may have not much learning nor any wit; but if he has common sense, and something friendly in his behavior, it conciliates men's minds more than the brightest parts within his disposition.-Addison.
